

PSC At A Glance

PSC exists to prevent child abuse and neglect. Below is an overview of the services PSC offers to families, youth and children.

For more information about our programs call (412) 361- 4800 or email the staff person listed below.

PARENTAL STRESS CENTER, INC.

Believing in the Power of the Family

5877 Commerce Street
Pittsburgh, PA 15206
Www.PSCFamily.net

Visitation Services

Transportation and supervision of parent/caregiver visits with their children. Services are provided by referral from Allegheny County Children Youth & Family Services or Family Court.

Joy Webb — jwebb@pscfamily.net

Family Unification Services

Intensive support & counseling to prevent child abuse and neglect. Services are provided by referral from county child welfare agencies.

Dina Tommasino — dtommasino@pscfamily.net

Youth Services

An after-school program that provides homework support and diverse activities and classes for youth ages 8 to 12.

Ja'Sonta Deen — jdeen@pscfamily.net

Economic Empowerment Initiative

Financial education, free tax services, access to public and private resources, and support for citizen engagement and advocacy for low income families and older youth.

Craig Stevens — cstevens@pscfamily.net
Gwen Williams — gjwilliams@pscfamily.net

Volunteer Program

Families & individuals helping PSC participants at PSC.

Alana Rykala — arykala@pscfamily.net

Building Usage and Rental Space

For groups and individuals looking to rent offices, class rooms or facilities at the PSC Family Center

Alana Rykala — arykala@pscfamily.net

To learn more, or to schedule a visit, call (412) 361-4800.
Visit us at www.PSCFamily.net.

Serving Allegheny, Westmoreland, Armstrong Counties, and Southwestern Pennsylvania.